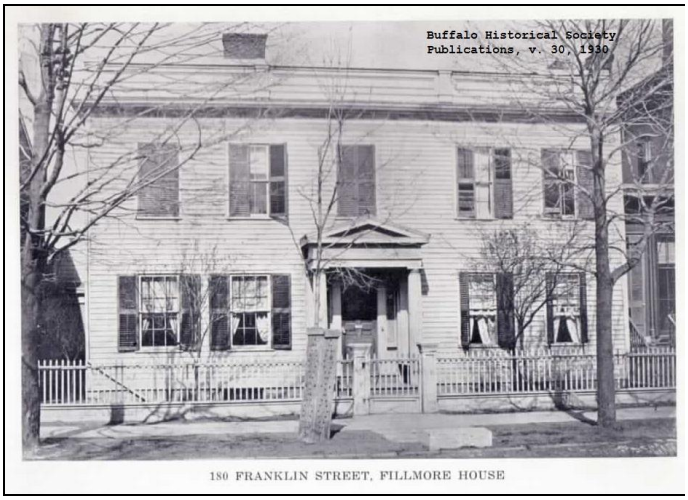
Millard Fillmore Residences and Offices



Listed in chronological order as found in Buffalo City Directories. “Franklin above Mohawk” (left image above) was assigned the address 128 Franklin St. around 1843. Around 1867, it was renumbered as 180 Franklin St. The house was remodeled after this photo was taken, then demolished around 1924 after a fire. The site can be seen in our Quackenboss & Kennedy atlas (1854), and the 1872 Hopkins Atlas (online at http://www.historicmapworks.com/Atlas/US/7117/NY/).

After the death of Fillmore’s widow Caroline, the house on Niagara Square (right image above) became the Hotel Fillmore and later the Castle Inn. It was demolished around 1920 to make way for the Hotel Statler.
